ROC Most Wanted Person Arrested in Mesa

PHOENIX – The Registrar of Contractors is announcing the arrest of one of its most wanted persons, Christopher James Eastwood.

“The Registrar’s Office has received, investigated and forward numerous complaints against Mr. Eastwood to county prosecutors. We are pleased to inform the public that Mr. Eastwood has been arrested on warrants stemming from these investigations.”, says Brian Livingston the Director of Communications for the ROC. A Mesa Police Officer arrested Mr. Eastwood during a traffic stop.

The charges filed against Mr. Eastwood are formidable and include felony and misdemeanor offenses. Thousands of dollars were lost to various victims in the state because of the actions of Mr. Eastwood. The ROC’s investigation of Mr. Eastwood’s activities is continuing as an additional complaint was recently been filed with the agency. Mr. Eastwood is currently being held in the Maricopa County Jail on a $25,000 bond.

The ROC would also like to extend its appreciation to local media outlets for the coverage they have given to the ROC’s Most Wanted List. This coverage has lead to capture of Mr. Eastwood and many others named on the Most Wanted List.

The ROC regulates construction contractors in the state by providing a licensing and regulatory system for residential and commercial contractors designed to protect the health, safety and welfare of the public. Additionally, the ROC offers financial protection to residential consumers who use licensed contractors through its Residential Contractors’ Recovery Fund. Established in 1931, the ROC operates 9 offices statewide. For more information about the agency, call 602-542-1525 or toll-free outside Maricopa County at 888-271-9286 or visit www.azroc.gov.
